Watson, its Fleet Captain, both of whom were present at the reception, said that they did not hear Mr. Morgan make any such promise. Mr. Morgan was seen at his office and shown the published statement. "That article," said Mr. Morgan, "does not correctly quote me. What I did say is that if there is any one over there that wants to race the Columbia, I will send her over there." Mr. Morgan declined to further discuss the possibility of the cup winner going abroad, or on what conditions he would allow her to race against any foreign yacht.
